Woodford Farm.

The subscriber will sell at private sale, that valuable farm in Anne-Arun del county, about six miles from Ellicott's Mills, and sixteen from the city of Baltimore, containing upwards of nine hundred acres. This land is within a mile of Col. John E. Howard's farm. The soil of Woodford is not interior to any in the state of Maryland, and upon no land does plaister operate more feetually. A large proportion of this tract is heavily timbered, and much of the chared land highly cultivated with clover and plaister. The short distance from Ellicott's Mills affords a ready market for the sale of all kinds of grain, &c. The subscriber will receive United States Stock, or beet in all of the Banks in Baltinore, in payment for the purchase money. Any person wishing to purchase, can view the land by applying to the manager, Mr. Thomas Anderson, and applications of purchasers will be received by Colonel John E. Howard, in Baltimore and the subscriber living in the city of Anna-

St. John's College.

The Visitors of this institution have the satisfaction of informing the public, that it has recently been revived under the superintendance of Dr. John M'Dowell, formerly Principal of this Seminary, and late Provost of the University of Pennsylvania It will be the particular province of this gentleman to instruct the students in the various branches of Philosophy and Science. He will enter on the duties of his station in the last week of the present month, and in the meantime the progress of the young gentlemen, in the studies which he is to direct, will not be materially retarded, as the Pro fessor of Languages, (the Rev. Mr. Allen of Trinity College, Dublin) is also well qualified to teach in the other department. Mr. Allen resides in the College, and will take boarders at 140 dollars per annum, payable quarterly, each student furnishing himself with bedding. The price of tuition is ten dollars per quarter; thus the whole expense, including washing, &c. does not exceed $ 180 per annum. The visitors confidently trust, that under the care of these Professors, St. John's will speedily regain its former celebri-
